

languid: (adjective)

- lacking in vigor or vitality; slack or slow
- drooping or flagging from weakness or fatigue

languid

pronunciation:

lang-gwid

languid

Synonyms

- lackadaisical
- spiritless
- inactive / inert
- sluggish
- unconcerned
- phlegmatic
- torpid
- enervated

languid

Related Forms:

- languidly (adverb)
- languidness (noun)

languid

Slugs are recognized for their languid habits.

languid

Languid
after their
adventure,
Calvin and Hobbes
rested in the tree.

languidly

The Smurf
sprawled
languidly
in the sun.

languidly

Rui

Languidly
resting on the branch, the
bear didn't budge when
the cameraman
approached it.

languidness

He wasn't lazy;
languidness
just appealed to the young man.

languidness

Languidness suited them during the hot days of summer.

languidly

Lost in the imaginary world of his novel, the boy languidly slept on the bench.